The City Council shall set an adequate compensation for the Mayor Pro Tem during the time he or she serves temporarily as Mayor. If the Mayor becomes disabled and unable to fulfill the duties of the office, the City Council may conduct a hearing to determine if a vacancy in the office of Mayor by disability should be declared. Upon a finding by the preponderance of the evidence that a vacancy by disability should occur, the City Council may by proper ordinance declare the office of Mayor to be vacant and request the Mayor Pro Tem to become Mayor. If the person holding the office of Mayor Pro Tem declines to fill the position of Mayor by written notice to the City Council, the City Council by majority vote shall appoint from its membership a person to become Mayor until the next election for the City of Lebanon, so long as the vacancy in the office of Mayor occurs at least ninety (90) days before the next scheduled City election. Otherwise, the person appointed Mayor by the City Council shall complete the unexpired term of the Mayor. If the Mayor Pro Tem resigns or is unable to complete the term to which he or she was elected as Mayor Pro Tem, the City Council may by affirmative vote of the majority elect from their membership a person to complete the unexpired term of the Mayor Pro Tem.
